The Factory
Kaikoura, North Canterbury
Self-Contained Cottage, Kaikoura

On the beachfront at Hapuku, 10 minutes north of Kaikoura, The Factory offers unique 5-star luxury self-contained accommodation in an historic building. With dramatic views of snow-covered mountains on one side and the ocean on the other it is the ideal base to explore all the amazing activities available in Kaikoura, home to the famous Whale Watch. Your stay at The Factory is exclusive, with only one party booked at a time, so you may just choose to relax and enjoy the stunning location. Your glamorously designed accommodation is in a separate wing of the factory with exclusive use of the private courtyard with outside spa. Fully self-contained, you can choose to self-cater and make use of the fresh produce from the garden or you can experience the full breakfast where almost everything is made, grown or caught locally. With luxurious furnishings and linen, a log burner fire and heated flooring throughout. The Factory accommodates up to 6 people in 3 king bedrooms and suits couples, families or friends travelling together. Whale-watching, dolphin, seal, albatross and birdlife viewing close by.

Accommodation

The Factory offers accommodation in the guest wing of a beautifully converted Dairy Factory.

3 king bedrooms, a bathroom and fully self-contained kitchen and living area, it is the perfect place for up to 6 people at a time to enjoy exclusive use.

Linens and furnishings are luxurious and comfortable, underfloor heating throughout and a log fire ensure comfort all year round and the private outside spa and courtyard with barbecue enable you to relax and enjoy the gorgeous surroundings in peace. The Factory welcomes families with children and will provide a cot or single bed if needed. The grounds, with a tree hut and small flying fox, are safe and a delight for children of all ages. You can choose to self-cater or a full breakfast can be provided using ingredients grown on the property or sourced locally. Sean loves fishing and makes great coffee and is always happy to do so when he is around. Native birds abound; tuis, bellbirds and native wood pigeons compete with the sound of the rolling surf – paradise!
