

The Peppertree

Blenheim, Marlborough

Luxury bed and breakfast, Blenheim

The Peppertree is a gracious 5-Star rated Edwardian Villa built in 1901 and nestled amongst the world-famous Marlborough wineries. Surrounded by 10-acres of farmland, a small Chardonnay vineyard produces a succulent boutique wine thoroughly enjoyed by guests from all around the world, an olive grove, and beautiful gardens

The first impression is one of old-world grace and timeless elegance. That feeling is elevated when you enter the front door with a high stud and exquisite joinery using native timbers.

An ideal base from which to tour the region or a tranquil retreat where time stands still. Let your hosts, Heidi and Werner, guide you through the five spacious suites each delicately themed providing individual charm as well as comfort and complete with fireplace, verandah or balcony. You will enjoy the heritage feel along with the modern conveniences and above all the personal touches on offer.

Start the day with a delicious breakfast in the elegant dining room (or on the veranda). Stroll through the native trees, hear the birdsong, enjoy a game of petanque or croquet. And, as the sun sets, be sure to sample The Peppertree Chardonnay on the wisteria clad veranda, grown in the boutique vineyard just metres from the homestead and made by owner Werner. A wonderful opportunity to speak to a passionate winemaker. You might well think you are in paradise!

William Morris The charm of yesteryear is evoked as you enter this large, gracious room with a king-size bed and antique furniture. A grand kauri fireplace commands attention as does the genuine 'turn of the century light fitting, original wallpaper, and matching frieze. The room is spacious and airy, attracting all-day sun through large windows and double doors. The doors open out onto a verandah and garden and offer an alternative entrance.

In the ensuite bathroom with shower, the eye is drawn to the free-standing claw foot bath opposite a magnificent wooden fireplace with antique tile surrounds. It is tastefully furnished in keeping with the theme of the homestead.

Dormer Nestled under the dormer roof, up a short flight of stairs, is a charmingly romantic suite of rooms ideal for a honeymoon couple seeking quietness, privacy, and seclusion. The highlight of the room is the magnificent white king-size bed, prettily draped in white muslin and bedecked with cushions and pillows. A balcony overlooks the courtyard and attractive garden with views over the trees to the majestic mountains in the distance.

The large ensuite bathroom is light and spacious with tiled walls, and incorporates a spa/bath, shower, and a delightful little picture window depicting The Peppertree design.

Sunset Aptly named for its aspect that allows you to enjoy the sun setting in the west, this pretty room has French doors leading to a garden. Here, the songs of bellbirds, fantails, and other New Zealand native birds greet you in the morning. Climbing roses, pretty hedges, shrubs, and blossom trees surround this sanctuary. The garden allows access to your suite.

An attractive ensuite bathroom provides a shower and special non-slip tiles underfoot.

Garden If you need a delightful place to relax then you will enjoy the peace on offer in the Garden Suite. This generously proportioned and tastefully decorated room includes a beautifully New Zealand-crafted solid wood stand-alone wardrobe complete with a full-length mirror. Your eye is drawn to the imposing French doors leading onto a verandah and garden with a calming water feature, inviting you to enjoy the evening sunshine.

There are twin or king-size bed options and attractive New Zealand prints adorn the walls.

You step down into an attractive ensuite bathroom with a shower and non-slip tiles.

Venetian Newly created in keeping with the Edwardian style, tastefully furnished and mirroring the charm of Venice. This spacious room is most comfortable and has access to a verandah and garden where ferns, bamboo, and native shrubs provide a wonderful backdrop to the delightful water feature. It's the perfect spot to unwind at the end of an active day and it also offers an alternative entrance.

The attractive ensuite bathroom with shower is on level grounds and generously proportioned.

This suite has full wheelchair access and facilities for the disabled and twin or king-size bed options.
